Key Points

Key Points

(1) In the public sector market, sales of i-FILTER and m-FILTER declined year-on-year.

- Sales declined in reaction to the winning of multiple large projects in the previous fiscal year.

(2) Consolidated operating profit for 1 H reached a record high.

- Net sales for the public sector market declined year-on-year, but net sales for the enterprise sector market and the consumer sector market increased.
- Profitability increased due to the effects of the selection and concentration of management resources based on the review of overseas strategies implemented in the previous consolidated fiscal year, and consolidated operating profit secured a record high.
(3) Enhanced the lineup of DigitalArts@Cloud
- FinalCode@Cloud and Chat@Cloud were added to DigitalArts@Cloud lines. Actualizes a virus-free world that allows users to not be conscious of security, even in cloud operations.
- Cloud operation needs increased in terms of enterprise security and net sales increased.

(4) Sales of i-FILTER Browser & Cloud increased

- In the enterprise sector market, work style has diversified and there has been growing opportunities to use terminals provided by companies including tablets or note PCs outside companies.
- In the public sector market, changes are taking place in the field of education due to the progress of ICT, and efforts are underway to establish an environment in which one or a small number of students can use a single tablet. Reflecting this, the number of devices is expected to increase.

Initiatives for the Second Half

Challenges for the Second Half (2H)

- Termination of Support for Windows7 (Jan. 2020)
- Consumption tax hike (Oct. 2019)
- Partners were pressed to cope with the last-minute demand for PC switchovers, and sales of our products stagnated temporarily.
- Increased demand for low-price secure cloud operation
- OigitalArts@Cloud. released at high price
- The Company's brand image has not escaped conventional filtering software.
- Our product value has not reached end users.
- Dramatic growth in the number of new order projects has not been achieved.

Initiatives for the Second Half

(1) OigitalArts@Cloud. 's price revision/product reinforcement

While reinforcing product lines, review prices and increase the number of licenses/groups.
(2) Help customers introduce large projects

Accurately communicate the product value/brand and actively make approaches to have an advantage in winning large projects.
(3) Reinforce sales personnel
(4) New internal incentive compensation plan

To achieve dramatic growth, make sales capabilities more robust and establish a sales system that is not subject to the external environment.
